CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

To ensure proper use of information, to protect the independence and credibility of the Council of Canadian Academies and of an assessment undertaken by an expert panel:

1. Documentation provided to a panel chair, panel members, report reviewers or a report review monitor, including technical, business and personal information, may not be used for any purpose beyond the one for which it was originally intended.

2. Any material not already in the public domain, including drafts of panel reports, must be treated as strictly confidential. Reviewers must store and communicate confidential information with all due care.

3. For panel deliberations identified as “in camera”, neither the discussions nor the panel’s conclusions may be disclosed to others, except where the disclosure is at the request of the Council or required by a legal order.
